Nathan and Light People

A Channeled Message on Consciousness, Dreams, and Cosmic Identity (March 19, 1999)

OVERVIEW

This 36-minute message explores how consciousness operates across dimensions, the nature of dream travel, and the concept of 'Nathan' as spiritual principle. The beings explain that thought is more pliable than the brain, that humans are not what they appear to be, and that dream states allow consciousness to experience parallel worlds and higher vibrations.

CORE CONCEPTS

1. Thought vs. Brain Structure: Thought forms are more unifiable and pliable than physical brain structure. Thought can create much greater envelopment of interacting matter. The brain is mechanical; thought is infinite.

2. Dream Travel as Real Experience: Dreams of travel (airplanes, trains, automobiles) are not fantasies but real experiences where consciousness joins others traveling to parallel worlds. Souls who've passed continue in dreams with those still alive.

3. Who You Truly Are: What you feel you are, you are not. What you see, you are not. True identity is revealed through mirror gazing meditation—the physical disappears and reality emerges.

4. The Mirror Exercise: Gazing at your reflection in dim light causes the physical image to dissolve, revealing your true non-physical self. This removes ego illusions but should only be attempted when ready.

5. Image Makers of Life: The beings are 'image makers' who dress and perform for humanity to enrich minds about true identity, removing lies and misconceptions from the material world.

6. Ego Dominance and Forgetting: Once, all humans knew their origin from outer plateaus. Ego and materialism buried this truth. Humans have been 'modified and disrupted' to perceive only the material.

7. The Graces—Sovereign Beings: 'The Grace' are infinite beings with no masters, appearing as subordinates but not being subordinates. They have their own parallel and don't work for anyone else. They're free agents.

8. Masters of the Universe: True masters exist beyond the outer light and are masters of light itself, yet have no awareness they are leaders. Authority comes naturally from being.

9. Nathan as Principle: 'Nathan' represents something significant related to understanding true identity and cosmic awareness, though the beings use it somewhat mysteriously.

10. Light People and Cosmic Hierarchy: There are various orders of beings ('Light People') across dimensions, from those working with matter to those in purely fluidic realms, each with specific purposes.

KEY MESSAGES

Humans are consciousness experiments where ego has obscured truth. Dreams are real cosmic experiences. True identity isn't physical but eternal consciousness. Mirror gazing reveals non-physical self. The universe operates through autonomous beings with no true hierarchy of dominance. Thought creates reality across dimensions.
