Huros: The School Room

A Channeled Message Featuring a Spirit Teacher and Classroom Learning in Non-Physical Dimensions (October 14, 1999)

OVERVIEW

This 54-minute message introduces Huros, a spirit teacher, describing educational structures in non-physical dimensions. The beings explain how consciousness continues learning after death through organized schooling and teaching.

CORE CONCEPTS

Huros the Teacher: Huros is an advanced spirit being functioning as teacher/educator in non-physical dimensions.

School Rooms Exist: Organized educational structures exist in spirit dimensions similar to Earth schools but more sophisticated.

Curriculum by Level: Different consciousness levels have different curricula matched to their development stage.

Teaching Methodology: Learning in non-physical uses direct mind-to-mind transmission rather than verbal/written methods.

Ongoing Education: Consciousness never ceases learning—education continues through all dimensional levels.

Learning Communities: Groups of similar-consciousness beings gather for collective learning and mutual development.

Teachers and Mentors: Advanced beings serve as teachers, having specialized knowledge in various domains.

Experiential Learning: Spirit learning is experiential—directly manifesting and experiencing concepts rather than theoretical discussion.

Subject Matter Diversity: Learning covers vast areas—science, art, consciousness mechanics, dimensional physics, history, etc.

Gradual Advancement: Through school, consciousness gradually advances to higher levels, eventually graduating to even higher dimensions.

KEY TAKEAWAY

Education is fundamental principle throughout all existence—consciousness never stops learning. Spirit dimensions contain organized schools and teachers facilitating advancement. Learning occurs through direct mind-to-mind transmission and experiential knowing rather than abstract study. Similar consciousness beings gather for mutual learning and growth. Advancement is gradual but inevitable as beings apply learning to elevate their consciousness and understanding.
