Chota of Murcos Interacts

A Channeled Message from an Interdimensional Being (December 17, 1999)

OVERVIEW

This 43-minute message introduces Chota, a being from the Murcos realm. Chota represents consciousness from a completely different dimensional framework, offering unique perspectives on existence and human development.

CORE CONCEPTS

Chota Identity: Chota is advanced consciousness from Murcos dimension—realm with different physics and principles.

Murcos Nature: Murcos appears to be dimension parallel to dominion system but with different organization.

Dimensional Uniqueness: Each dimension operates according to unique principles—Murcos has distinct characteristics.

Communication Challenge: Chota finds human language and concepts difficult—vast gap between Murcos and Earth consciousness.

Perspective Difference: Chota's viewpoint is radically different from Earth-based consciousness—fresh perspective on existence.

Technological Awareness: Murcos appears to have advanced science/technology concepts unknown to Earth.

Philosophical Contribution: Chota brings philosophical insights from completely different frame of reference.

Cross-Dimensional Learning: Interaction allows Earth consciousness to learn from radically different perspective.

Adaptation Process: Chota must adapt to Earth frequency—similar to other beings working with humans.

Curiosity About Earth: Chota demonstrates genuine interest in understanding Earth consciousness.

KEY TAKEAWAY

Chota represents consciousness from completely different dimensional framework—Murcos realm with unique principles and organization. Communication requires adaptation from both sides. Murcos consciousness offers fresh perspective on existence. Cross-dimensional interaction expands Earth consciousness through exposure to radically different viewpoints. Multiple dimensions with different physics and principles all coexist in larger multi-dimensional cosmos.
